Tax returns: Missing (ALL)

Debtor's counsel states that she left her file in her office. The presiding officer could not verify the wet signature in the petition. Debtor testified under oath that she signed her voluntary petition. Counsel to provide at Trustee's office original of voluntary petition.

Debtor to clarify her first name spelled as "Myra" on voluntary petition and "BNC", but as "Mayra " on CCC.

Payroll deductions for "Embargo Terceria Hacienda" & " Deudas contra Hacienda" are included in schedule I.

Debtor no longer has these deductions. Furthermore, debtor is already disclosing at schedule "I" deductions for taxes, however, in addition to these deductions she is also listing a payment for taxes included at schedule "J" in the amount of 610.00 monthly (that is 7320.00 monthly). If we take the deductions listed above they add 400.00 (as per sch I) plus the 610.00 in sch J, this adds up to 1010.00 monthly for taxes. This matter has to be clarified since sch I is contemplating deductions that are no longer being made. As per a cursory review, it might be that debtor has additional disposable income not committed to the plans funding.

Given that debtor's counsel at this time does not have her file with her, and given that the above stated issue need to be clarified. I hereby continue the meeting of creditors to the above said date.

Notwithstanding, the presiding makes the following observations to be discussed in the next meeting of creditors:

Specify make for vehicle listed at schedule "B"

-To clarify lunch expenses for $250.00 mo.

-As per voluntary petition, debtor resides at Parque Escorial, however d1 exemption was claimed over ppty. at Barrazas, Carolina. Debtor does not reside this property, however she states that her mother, which, she testifies that depends on a 60% of her is the person living the property

Clarify since no mailing address was included in voluntary petition.

- Provide evidence of donation deed. Real property was donated to debtor by mother.
